

OUR DOCTORS

Dr Wei-Sen Lam

MBBS, FRACP, MHA

Medical Oncologist

Dr Wei-Sen Lam is a Medical Oncologist who treats a broad range of cancer with interests in lung cancer and melanoma. He also works at Fiona Stanley Hospital and Esperance Hospital. Dr Lam has several leadership roles including Head of Medical Oncology Department at Fiona Stanley Hospital and was previously Director of Medical Oncology WA Country Health Service and Co-Chair of the WA Cancer Oncology Group.

He is passionate about improving cancer services for rural and remote WA and has developed new and innovative services including Telechemotherapy and Teleympoedema. During his time as Director of Medical Oncology for WA Country Health Service, Dr Lam providing leadership in implementing the WA Country Health Service Cancer Plan and helped commence new cancer services in Karratha, Broome and Narrogin and a Teleympoedema service in Esperance and Katanning.

Wei-Sen holds a Masters of Health Administration and completed a leadership course with the Australian Institute of Management. Wei-Sen has a keen interest in research and is actively involved in clinical trials. Dr Lam was a successful recipient of the WA Cancer and Palliative Care Network Fellowship and is a principal investigator in several lung cancer trials at Fiona Stanley Hospital. Dr Lam is currently the Director of Teletrials. Dr Lam is working with the Australian Teletrial Program to develop clinical trial units in country WA and create a pathway to help improve access to clinical trials for patients.

Dr Lam's special interests are:

- Lung, Mesothelioma, Melanoma and Breast Cancer
- Upper GI Tumours and Colorectal
- Prostate

For appointments please refer to contact details below.

Western Haematology and Oncology Clinics:
18 Prowse St, West Perth, WA 6005
Phone: (08) 6146 1400

email: info@whoc.com.au

visit: www.whoc.com.au